

Regulatory Flexibility Analysis (RFA) for small businesses and local governments:

A regulatory flexibility analysis is not required pursuant to subdivision three of section 202-b of the State Administrative Procedure Act because the rule does not impose an adverse economic impact on small businesses or local governments. The proposed rule seeks only to establish regulations requiring local correctional facilities to record, review and report certain determinations to confine an inmate to a cell or deprive an inmate of essential services. Considering that such determinations are relatively infrequent, it will not have an adverse impact on small businesses or local governments, nor impose any additional significant reporting, record keeping, or other compliance requirements on small businesses or local governments.
