

Regulatory Flexibility Analysis (RFA) for small businesses and local governments:

A regulatory flexibility analysis is not required pursuant to subdivision three of section 202-b of the State Administrative Procedure Act because the rule does not impose an adverse economic impact on small businesses or local governments. The proposed rule seeks only to establish the regulatory framework by which counties and the City of New York may solicit the Commission of Correction's approval for the construction, renovation and certification of specialized secure juvenile detention facilities for older youth, as required by recent "Raise the Age" legislation. Consequently, it will not have an adverse impact on small businesses or local governments, nor impose any additional significant reporting, record keeping, or other compliance requirements on small businesses or local governments.
