Governor and Members of the Legislature:

I am pleased to submit to you the New York State Commission of Correction Annual Report for the year 2022.

The Commission continues to stand by its mission to provide a safe, stable and humane correctional system in New York State. Governor Kathy Hochul's commitment to the improvement of the correctional system in New York and support of corrections professionals throughout the state gives the Commission added leverage to further its mission.

The statutory mandate of the State Commission of Correction is a broad and multi-faceted one. The Commission has continuously carried out its mandate effectively and efficiently, and stands out in the correctional arena as an innovator and provider of quality services to New York State.

The Commission's commitment to the correctional community and the people of New York State will remain strong. The agency looks forward to continuing to serve the best interests of both.

Sincerely,

Allen Riley
