Rose M. Singer Center

Located on Rikers Island in East Elmhurst, New York, the Rose M. Singer Center was opened in June of 1988 as an 800-bed facility. Subsequent additional housing has increased capacity to its present level. In March 2012 a new 800-bed expansion was added to the Rose M. Singer Center. In June 2023 a major renovation was completed, making modifications to several housing areas. The current Maximum Facility Capacity is rated at 1319 beds at standard, consisting of 15 individual occupancy housing areas and 20 multiple occupancy housing areas.

The facility is led by an Assistant Commissioner and is operated by a compliment of sworn security and civilian personnel. Those staff are responsible for providing all required essential services to incarcerated individuals while maintaining the safety and security of the facility.
